Dear Parents/Guardians:

As you are aware, our second Interim Reporting date is approaching in less than two weeks (27 January).

There will be a variety of things happening for this second Interim, as was outlined in the letter I sent in the fall. Teachers are choosing from several options: Zoom Calls, Blog/Fresh Grade Posts, Phone Calls, Written Communication, etc. your child's teacher will be reaching out to you directly to inform you what method they will be using to communicate student planning for this second interim reporting period. Our request is that you make every effort to accommodate their request – in whatever format they have chosen.

The actual date for Interim Reporting is the 27th, as I indicated above, however, since some teachers will be arranging Zoom calls, these will obviously need to be scheduled over more than one day. Please make sure you are watching for communication on the specifics from your child's teacher. Also, if there is any requirement to send any communication back to the school as a follow up, please make sure you do that. Again, this will all be detailed in the letter you receive from the teacher.

We want to ensure that you have an opportunity to provide information and feedback to us as well on your child's progress should you wish to do so.

Thanks so much for your participation in the assessment process for your child. Your input is both welcomed and valuable. We appreciate your time. Please look for that communication from your child's teacher next week!

Sincerely,
